REV. J. M. RHODES, President,

LAWMAKERS ARE FORGING AHEAD

Reeve's Management Is, Perhaps, the Responsible Factor for *Improvement.

JACK BOWEN IS SIGNED

New First-Baseman to Join the Team in Portsmouth.

Saturday was a great day for Richmond in the baseball line, and the Lawmakers are being held now 'way above par by the enthusiastic fans. The locals par by the enthusiastic fans. The locals are displaying much better team work than they have exhibited for some time, and the individual work is also of a higher order than has been witnessed lately. With the encouragement the team has lately received from the rooters and with the encouragement they have accorded themselves with their late victories, the team has been given an impetus which will help them greatly in the remainder of the race greatly in the remainder of the race greatly in the remainder of the race yet to run.

Raiph Reeve is proving himself an able and popular manager, and it is, perhaps, owing largely to his efforts that the team has shown such improvement. Reeve has a good head, thinks quickly and knows the game from beginning to end. He is popular with the players, and that is a great asset in his favor, for no baseball player can work as well under a man he does not like as well as he can work under a man whom he does like. Reeve's management is meeting also with the approval of the owners of the team, and it seems likely that he will be kept at the head of the team to steer it on to victory and the pennant.

New First-Baseman.

New First-Baseman.

New First-Baseman.

Jack Bowen, who played first-base for Danville during the early part of the season, will be the nev first-baseman for Richmond, and will join the locals to-day in Portsmouth for a tryout. Manager Reeve stated last night that whether Bowen remains permanently with the team depends entirely upon his work. If he makes good, he will stay; if his work is not of a high order, he will stay; if his work is not of a high order, he will be forced to try another berth. It is safe to say that Bowen will do his best, and that good reports will be heard of him.

The man Manager Reeve was trying to land is P. J. Conroy, of the East Liverpool team, P. O. M. League, Conroy would have been a valuable man, as he is a fine fielder and a good hitter, hitting now over the 300 mark. But hitting now over the .300 mark. But Courov could not be secured, and Man-ager Reeve then turned his attention Bowen.

Duke Carter was easily the star in to Bowen.

Duke Carter was easily the star in the second game played here Saturday, he virtually won the game himself. Though he was touched up pretty freely, he managed to keep the hits well enough scattered to prevent them from counting too heavily in, the totals at the end of the game. Then in the last half of the eighth, with two men down and two strikes on him, he lined out a clean single and scored Cowan, winning the game.

A rather timely suggestion, in view of the tremendous crowd at the ball park on Saturday, has been made that the grandstand Sanoutd be extended for some distance along the east side of the field for the accommodation of the overflow witnessed every Saturday. The present grandstand is not grandstand start of sufficient size to seat the great crowds, and people who would purchase grandstand tickets are forced to sit on the rather uncomfortable bleachers. Such an extension would redound to the benefit of both the owners of the park, who would increase their receipts through the increased number of grandstand tickets crease their receipts through the in-creased number of grandstand tlekets sold, and to the benefit of the people, who would be more comfortably seat-ed and would be sheltered from the ed and would be sheltered from the weather.

Another timely suggestion is that the grass in the outfield be cut. The grass has grown nearly knee high, and the result is that a ball is easily lost in the tangled growth, enabling, perhaps, the runner to go further round the bases than otherwise would occur.

NEW YORK, July 14.—Interest ig amateur sports this week centres in the continuation of play at Wimbledon, England, by the American lawn tennis team, composed of Beals C. Wright and Karl H. Behr, in the preliminary events ip, singles and doubles, success in which will put them in line to become challengers for the challenge cup. The chances of the American team are not considered bright. With the Doherty brothers believe to compete, tennis players unable the With the Doherty brothers believe to compete, tennis players unable the chances of the English team are equally remote, and that the cup will go to Australia, as it is not thought that England will be able to get together a team capable of holding its own with Brookes and Wilding. Friday next, on the field of the Onwentsia Country Club, Chicago will begin the national championship polo events.

TO DETERMINE QUESTION OF VANDERBILT CUP RACE.

NEW YORK, July 14.—The present week will probably decide the question as to whether or not there will be an automobile race this year for the Vanderbilt cup. The Senate of New Jersey is expected to meet and citter pass or kill the measure empowering local authorities to set apart certain sections of the highways for the contest.
